

Edgartown School 2010 Summer Reading For Students Entering 8th Grade Mrs. Leuenberger/ ELA Teacher 7/8 Grades

What do summer and reading have in common? They are both fun!
I would like you to approach your summer reading with this in mind.

- Choose TWO books to read this summer. These books should be at your current reading level (not below!) They should be similar to the level of books that you have read this school year. You may read fiction, non-fiction, collections of poetry or short stories.
- When you have finished reading EACH book complete the attached page for EACH BOOK. These pages will be due the first day of school. (You should hand in two pages—one for each book). These will be graded.
- Be prepared to complete a writing assignment about your two books when you return to school. The writing assignment will be given during the first week of school and will be graded.
- Finally, be prepared, based on the attached page, to give a book talk to the class about ONE of your books. This will also be graded. Feel free to bring extra notes, props, or other interesting items to make your book talk exciting.

Have fun!
